A Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness, you are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You. O Loving Father, spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.

Weekend Reflection

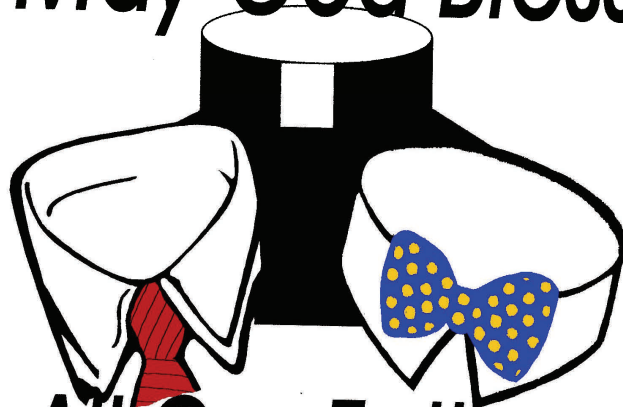

Part of being a believer is knowing that God keeps his promises. And how do we know that? Because he has kept them in the past. Christ died for us when we were sinners, so Paul concludes that now that we have been saved from sin, we will also be saved from death.

Jesus shows that there is still more that God can do. When he saw the crowds in today's gospel, he pitied them because they were "like sheep without a shepherd." They seemed to need leaders, someone who could show them the way to God. So Jesus responds in two ways.

First, he teaches his disciples to pray for more leaders. Jesus is teaching us to pray for Church leaders today. He also teaches us to pray for vocations to religious life.

The second thing Jesus does is to take action by sending the apostles. For us, taking action may mean offering our help to parish leaders, serving a term on the parish council, or encouraging our children to consider a religious vocation. God gives these gifts without cost. He simply asks us to pass on that good news of salvation. That is what leadership in the Church is all about.

May God Bless
