In Christ,

Palm Sunday is the start of Holy Week. This is the most solemn of weeks for the Church. Holy Thursday, with the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7PM, is the end of Lent and the beginning of the Paschal Triduum. It is very fitting to use this week as a retreat. We ought to turn away from unnecessary activities and embrace a week of reverence as much as possible.

My suggestion for all of us is to turn off the TV's, radios, and computers. Stay off the smart phones and tablets. Use this week as a time of intense union with Christ in the garden of Gethsemane. Do what is needed at work and school, but at home and in the car take in the silence of our Lord preparing for the cross.

My personal practice for Holy Week is to abstain from media with one exception, watching the Holy Father celebrate the Triduum in Rome. Maybe this is a good practice for you; or maybe something else, like watching The Passion of the Christ. Whatever we do this week, make it something that resembles the sacredness of the time.

I strongly encourage everyone to participate in the liturgies of this week:

On Wednesday the Bishop will celebrate the Chrism Mass at St. Joseph Cathedral in Baton Rouge at 10:30. This Mass is where the bishop blesses the oils used by each church parish and the priests rededicate themselves to their vows.

Holy Thursday night at 7pm we will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper. We will remember the Last Supper where Christ instituted the priesthood and the Eucharist.

On Good Friday we will have the Stations of the Cross at Noon. During that time I will be in the confessional hearing confessions. Then at 3PM we will celebrate the Passion of the Lord Service, which includes reading of the Passion, veneration of the cross, and Holy Communion. Remember that Good Friday is a day of fasting. This means only eating one meal and no meat.

Finally the Triduum closes with the Easter Vigil at 8PM on Saturday. The Vigil is the highest liturgical celebration of all the Church year. We will welcome one person into the Church, and celebrate the Resurrection of Christ in the most beautiful way.

Easter Sunday will have a normal Sunday Mass schedule.
