NOTE FROM JOSEPH

How quickly these last eight weeks flew by for me! I am just starting to really feel at home at Immaculate Conception, but now the summer is over. I truly enjoyed my summer at this parish. I am grateful for everyone who made me feel at home. I owe a special thanks to the Knights of Columbus and the Ladies Auxiliary, who welcomed me to their meetings and always made sure I was fed! Thanks also to all the parishioners who invited Father and me to their homes. I enjoyed the food and, more importantly, the company. Thanks also to those who brought food to me and Father and kept the fridge in the rectory filled to capacity! Over the summer, I was edified to see the beautiful witness of parishioners who joyfully and faithfully sacrifice their time and ability for the thriving of this parish. Most importantly, I want to thank your pastor, Fr. Todd, who taught me so much about the priestly life and pastoral ministry both by word and example. You are truly blessed to have him as your pastor, as he is truly blessed to have you as his parishioners. I am grateful to God and to the Blessed Mother that my time at Immaculate Conception has affirmed me in the call to the priesthood. Please keep me in prayer as I move forward with seminary formation, and I will keep all of you in prayer. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee!
